Birthday week

The Reveal

Monday 11 to Friday 15 January. Look your best without wrecking it.

Day	Plan
Mon 11	Push. Normal food. 10k steps
Tue 12	Pull. Normal food
Wed 13	Legs, lighter (70%). Normal food
Thu 14	Rest or easy walk. Normal carbs, normal salt, 3-4 L water. Bed by 11
Fri 15	Weigh-in, photos, then the pump workout before the event

Don't

THE MISTAKES THAT MAKE YOU LOOK WORSE

- No crash diet: you'll look flat and tired
- No water cutting or skipping water: you'll look puffy the next day
- No laxatives, no fat burners
- No new foods or big salty meals on Thursday

15 January morning

- Weigh in and log it, whatever it says.
- Tape your waist. Take the same photos as 3 Nov.
- Put the two sets of photos side by side. That's the real result.
- Read your letter.

30-min pump, 1-2 hours before the event

LOOK FULLER

- Band pull-aparts 2 x 20
- Incline push-ups 3 x 15
- Cable lateral raise 3 x 15
- Cable curl + rope pushdown 3 x 12 each, superset
- Pec deck 2 x 15
- Rest only 30-45 sec. Stop before you're exhausted
- Eat a carb and protein meal after: rice with chicken

Happy birthday. Whatever the scale says, you kept a promise to yourself for 73 days. That's the new you.

After the birthday

Two weeks at maintenance, about 2,700-2,900 kcal, to reset your body and hormones and to protect the result. Then we plan the run to the mid-70s.
